

An Improved Approach to Corporate Housing

Travelers Haven takes the headache out of lodging your mobile workforce. Whether your next construction project lasts 30 days or 30 months, in a big city or a rural market — Travelers Haven handles the entire process with the latest tools and dedicated service

Stop Overpaying

Our clients save an average of 34% off corporate housing. That's because our lean operations and time-tested relationships allow us to deliver the best value.

Get Dedicated Service

We assign a single point of contact to ensure you get the tailored experience you deserve, along with access to our 24/7, Denver-based customer support line.

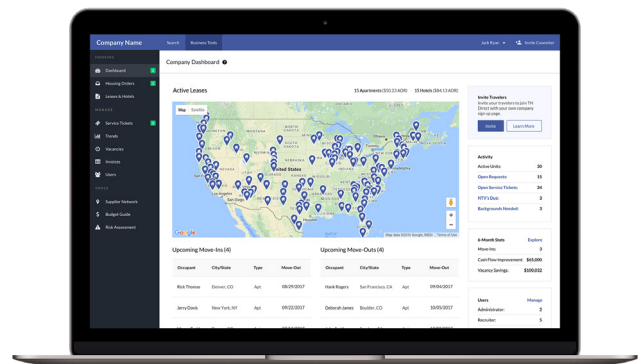

Beyond the Big Cities

Regardless of where your employees are headed, we have the experience to provide housing in rural and mid-sized markets that fit a range of budgets.

Powerful Online Tools

Manage all of your housing activity right from one, centralized location. The Travelers Haven Portal conveniently connects you to all your lease details and housing orders; downloadable invoices; service tickets; cash flow and other trend reporting; and more.
